LOCATION

Perton Road is a particularly prestigious address, enviably located within the much favoured western outskirts of the conurbation and enjoying a pleasantly mature wooded environment some three miles to the west of the city centre and with convenient access to local amenities and neighbourhood shopping facilities at Tettenhall Green, Tettenhall Wood, Compton and Perton all within relatively easy reach.

DESCRIPTION

Built circa 2007 to an extremely high specification and with further subsequent embellishments, "Old Lane House" is the epitome of elegance with a very distinctive 'Arts and Crafts' themed external appearance concealing remarkably spacious three-storey accommodation with a fluent and versatile layout capable of usage in a variety of configurations.

The property is presented throughout in immaculate order with stylish decorative finishes, fine oak joinery detailing and a lavish standard of appointment all combining to create a superlative home with an exquisite ambience and eminently suitable for comfortable family occupation.

Room sizes are of notably generous proportions, luxurious contemporary-style fittings and finishes are featured in the various bath/shower rooms, underfloor central heating is predominantly by a gas-fired system economically complemented by double glazing throughout and the immensely impressive Living Kitchen with its fine range of fittings and integrated appliances is especially noteworthy.

The house stands in beautifully landscaped gardens which are a particularly outstanding feature, providing an idyllic setting with considerable privacy and enjoying a south-facing aspect to the rear.
