LOCATION

Approached from a one mile farm drive off the B4368, the farmhouse stands with far reaching views across the Corvedale, one of the county's 'Areas of Outstanding Beauty', linking the market towns of Much Wenlock, Bridgnorth and Ludlow, all providing a good range of facilities. Also close-by is Shrewsbury the largest county town along the River Severn having a train station and leading independent schools.

OVERVIEW

The far reaching views over farmland and across the valley make this a truly desirable location. The period farmhouse has been restored with all modern day appointments but retains its charm and character. Equally impressive are the outside facilities including stone built garage, stables with loft above and having a separate entrance, a 14m x 9m steel framed barn, equestrian arena and grounds with paddocks extending to just over 4 acres.

ACCOMMODATION

Entering into the reception hall, there are two formal period reception rooms, a guest WC and a grand extended kitchen with pantry, Rayburn and garden room extension with views that leads into a sitting area beyond and out onto the southerly sun terrace. A large boot room provides an excellent rear entrance and utility area, facing the attractive outbuildings. There are also a range of cellars.

The first floor includes the principal bedroom with bath and shower en-suite, fitted wardrobes and a guest double bedroom adjacent to the house bathroom. Beyond is a large playroom/study having a separate staircase to the ground floor. This room has fitted storage and access to a further large bedroom with spacious en-suite shower room.

The second floor accommodation has a further two double bedrooms and bathroom including a shower over the bath.

OUTSIDE

With a gated formal front entrance, a gravelled drive gives good parking and a glimpse of the extensive views. The pretty mature gardens include an orchard hosting a wide variety of fruits. There is a further rear gated entrance into a courtyard with access to the stone outbuildings that are partly two storey and currently provide a garage, feed room and three stables. This detached building offers potential for alternative uses (STPP). Our clients have kept horses and built an enclosed arena (52m x 22m with a silica sand and rubber surface) plus a large steel barn for storage. These may be suitable for other pursuits. Adjoining are the grazing fenced paddocks. The drive is owned by the farmhouse and provides a shared access to both neighbours and farmland.
