LOCATION

The Wold is just a short stroll from the village where local amenities include a primary school, doctors surgery, Church and Village Hall. Additionally there are local pubs, tennis courts and also nearby the cricket club, array of golf clubs and bowling. What sets the location apart are the numerous walks and bridleways through this ancient settlement and surrounding countryside, yet remaining in easy reach of the West Midlands conurbation.

ACCOMMODATION

A coved canopy porch with front doors opens into the entrance hall having a full height glazed window, stairs rising to the first floor and doors off to the generous ground floor living areas. The lounge enjoys a dual aspect with a sliding patio door opening out to the rear garden and a cast iron log burner. A study provides an adaptable space with windows to the front elevation. Having been extended to the rear, the current owners have created a wonderful open plan dining kitchen with full width sliding doors opening out to the garden, two large storage cupboards along with a fitted kitchen comprising matching base and wall cabinets, granite work tops, inset sink unit and built in appliances to include a fridge and an electric oven with ceramic hob and extractor hood. A door gives access to a practical utility room having provision for a washing machine, door to the front, access into the garage and a guest WC. There is a further room to the rear of the garage which provides a versatile space with a back door to the garden and integral access to the garage which houses the central heating boiler.

From the hall, stairs rise to the first floor landing with a window looking out to the rear aspect enjoying countryside views. There are two good sized double bedrooms both of which have fitted wardrobe space and windows to the front elevation. A third double bedroom overlooks the rear garden. The family bathroom, being fully tiled is equipped with a white suite to include a WC, hand basin with cupboard below and a bath with shower over.

OUTSIDE

The property sits behind a gravel driveway providing good off road parking and gated side access. An up/over door gives access to the adjoining garage which has an inspection pit, lights, sockets, and also housing the LPG central heating boiler. The rear garden enjoys a raised terrace which extends off the back of the property with steps down to the a lawned garden area bordered by mature shrubbery and trees.
