LOCATION

Enjoying a quiet semi rural location just on the outskirts of town with access to many countryside walks and parks including Dudmaston, situated just off the A458 between Stourbridge and Bridgnorth making an ideal commuters escape. The town centre of Bridgnorth has lively weekend markets, the Severn Valley Railway, Theatre on The Steps, Art Deco cinema and an abundance of pubs, cafes and restaurants. There is a G.P. Surgery and local hospital. The funicular Cliff Railway rises from the banks of the river Severn up to Castle Walk to give a stunning view over High Rock and the Severn Valley.

Stanmore Hall is one of the areas finest mansions. The extensive stables, coach houses and staff accommodation were previously the Midland Motor Museum, but around 30 years ago was sold and transformed into the lovely Stanmore Mews development of 10 FREEHOLD properties. Screened by mature planting from the Hall, they still share the same off road turning with Stanmore Hall and Stanmore Touring Park, with the Mews drive and gates (remote or with a fob), to the right, that leads along the tree lined drive to the development. Residents can also enjoy the use of the parks shop and club house.

ACCOMMODATION

Accessed through the garden, a front doors opens into the entrance hall which features the turning staircase rising to the first floor along with a guest WC, fully tiled and fitted with a suite to include a concealed WC and hand basin set within a vanity unit. A door opens through into the open plan living/dining area with a window looking out to the front and French doors opening out into the rear courtyard garden. The kitchen extends off fitted with a range of matching base and wall cabinets, work tops over incorporating a small breakfast bar area, sink unit and a built in dishwasher and oven with hob above.

From the hall the stairs rise to the first floor landing, with its high ceilings. There are two well proportioned double bedrooms, both of which have feature arched windows and sky lights. The principal bedroom benefits from a tiled en-suite bathroom comprising a WC, hand basin with cupboard below and a heated towel rail. The second bedroom is serviced by the house shower room, tiled and fitted with a suite to include a corner shower cubicle, WC and a wash hand basin with cupboard below.
