Property Description

Why You'll Like It

This second floor two bedroom flat has been purpose built for the over 55s and offers independent living right in the centre of Truro with the added peace of mind of a house manager and pull cord / pendant alarm to assist if ever needed. The property offers a very rare level walk to the shops and is close to many lovely pubs, restaurants and cafes. There is a secure main door to the building with ramped access and an entry system fitted. The flat is accessed via a lift to the second floor and is located on the riverside of the building and has its own private front door from the main corridor as you would expect. Stepping inside there is a spacious entrance hallway with large storage cupboard. The living / dining room is a generous size and has a lovely outlook over the tidal River Allen which is a haven for wildlife and the park on Furniss Island. The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern shaker style base, tower and wall units and there is space for a slot-in cooker with space and plumbing for a washing machine. There are two bedrooms and a beautifully refitted shower room with oversize shower enclosure and practical continuous splash backs with the WC and basin built-in to make cleaning easier. Outside there is a parking area where we understand it is possible to rent a parking space (subject to availability). To the side of Enys Quay there is a locked private gate (for which the home owners hold a key) which leads to the pretty timber bridge which in turn takes you to the park at Furniss Island.
