Property Description

Why You'll Like It

This three double bedroom terraced cottage is located in a tucked away 'no through Rd' just off Richmond Hill and is a relatively short walk from both Truro mainline railway station and the city centre. The property is a large character cottage presented in good decorative order and benefiting from mains gas central heating and UPVC double glazing. There is a residents permit parking scheme in place (for more information visit Cornwall council's website) and the property retains a wealth of character while benefiting from modern upgrades. The doors and windows are UPVC double glazed and stepping inside we enter an entrance vestibule before stepping into the dining room which has attractive beamed ceilings (and the stairs to the first floor). The living room is a dual aspect room and also has beamed ceilings and a fireplace. The kitchen is towards the rear of the property on the ground floor and is fitted with a simple range of base and wall units with space for appliances and laminated work surfaces with built-in sink. The bathroom is also on the ground floor and has a shower over the bath along with a WC, basin and chrome ladder style towel rail heater. Heading upstairs there are three generous double bedrooms and the mains gas central heating boiler is located in one of them. There is a back door to the property leading out to a rear courtyard and rear pedestrian access.
