Truro | Cornwall | TR1 3LU

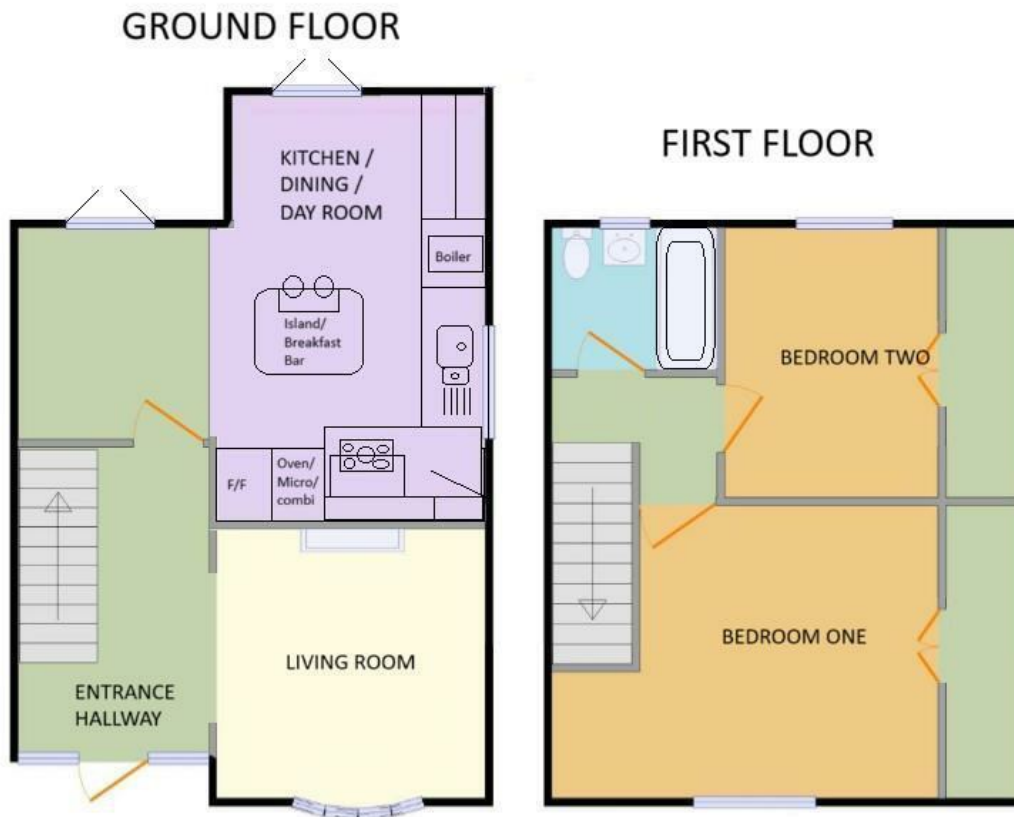

A surprisingly spacious two double bedroom semi detached house with a delightful rear garden, off street parking and a garage store. Although modernised with a refitted open plan kitchen / dining room and refitted bathroom, UPVC double glazing and oil fired central heating, the property still has many distinctive original period features intact including timber floorboards and Art Deco inspired banister to the stairway. Exceptionally convenient location between The Royal Cornwall Hospital and Truro College with the leisure centre along the road also.
