Location & Description

Modbury is a picturesque Georgian market town situated in the South Hams district of Devon approximately 12 miles east of the regional city of Plymouth. The principle road access is via the A379 which runs through the town.

We offer to the market this double fronted retail unit located in a super central location in the centre of Modbury town centre. The space comprises an open plan sales area with an enclosed WC to the rear. The unit is clearly visible travelling from either direction located next to Modbury News and the Post Office. It is also located approximately 50 metres from the car park.
