1 Bedroom Flat located in London

Huddletons are pleased to present this beautiful ground floor one-bedroom apartment set within a well-maintained period building, benefitting from its own private garden.

The flat has been newly refurbished and is bright and spacious, featuring hard floors throughout, purpose-built storage, and a fresh modern finish. There is a separate fully equipped kitchen, a tiled bathroom, and a generous living area with direct access to the garden. The private garden has just been updated with new decking and is for sole use — perfect for entertaining or relaxing outdoors.

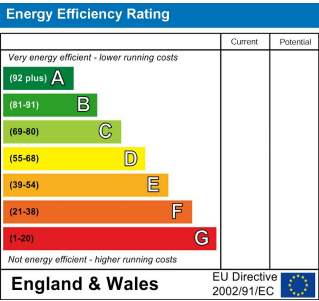

Location & Transport

The property is ideally located with excellent transport links. Both Chalk Farm Underground (Northern Line) and Kentish Town West (Overground) stations are within walking distance, and numerous bus routes provide easy access into Central London.
