

PACKINGTON HALL/MEWS, PACKINGTON, WS14 9HJ
£625,000

Affectionately dubbed the office favourite, this superb three-bedroomed first floor apartment is set within the heart of the historical and Grade II listed Packington Hall — easily identified by its striking, architecturally distinctive exposed brickwork archway, a feature that encapsulates the charm and individuality of this extraordinary development. Surrounded by open, picturesque countryside, the home offers a peaceful rural feel while remaining just a short drive from the vibrant Cathedral City of Lichfield, where an abundance of shopping amenities, social venues, entertainment hubs, and excellent commuter links can be found. The property benefits from the provisions of double glazing and LPG Calor Gas, and is securely accessed via a side intercom/door release system located within the attractive communal courtyard. An oak stairwell leads to a private first-floor entrance, opening into a generous hallway that sets the tone for the impressive space beyond. Internally, the apartment boasts a substantial family lounge that flows effortlessly into a fitted breakfast kitchen, complemented by a dedicated dining room that also lends itself to a variety of flexible uses. Three well-proportioned double bedrooms offer both comfort and privacy, with the master and second bedroom each benefitting from en-suite shower rooms, while a beautifully appointed family bathroom completes the internal accommodation. Externally, a tarmac driveway provides an allocated parking space, accompanied by its own single garage — a rare and valuable feature. To fully appreciate the unique blend of historic elegance and modern convenience this home delivers, internal inspection is highly recommended.

No expense has been spared during the home's remarkable development, with every detail meticulously considered to deliver exceptional quality and comfort. Extensive insulation throughout ensures impressive soundproofing and energy efficiency, contributing to a serene and economical living environment. The inclusion of high-end integrated appliances further elevates the kitchen's functionality and aesthetic, while luxurious Porcelanosa bathrooms add a sleek and contemporary finish — just a handful of the many premium enhancements that set this property apart.
