Halliday Homes welcome to the market this detached villa which has been significantly extended to provide superb family accommodation. Presented to the market in walk in condition, this lovely home is located in a highly sought after area, close to local amenities and schooling with early viewing recommended.

The internal accommodation comprises; entrance hall, WC, front facing lounge, open plan kitchen /dining area, utility room and an outstanding family room. The upper floor offers three double bedrooms, the principal bedroom enjoys en-suite facilities, and a family bathroom. There is access from the hall to a floored loft. Warmth is provided by gas central heating, and the property is fully double glazed. In addition, there is a single, integrated garage with light and power.

Externally the front garden is laid with lawn and has a Monoblock driveway leading to the garage. The rear garden is exceptionally private and bound by timber fencing. The garden enjoys artificial turf for modest maintenance, paved patio and pathway, garden shed and a large deck area ideal for outside entertaining.
