Halliday Homes are proud to present to the market this wonderful three-bedroom top floor apartment, enjoying a fine and enviable position in the highly sought-after town of Bridge of Allan. The property offers spacious and flexible accommodation, ideal for a variety of buyers.

The internal accommodation comprises: an immaculate communal hallway, leading to a welcoming entrance hall which provides access to all rooms in the apartment. There is a bright and generously sized lounge, a well-appointed kitchen, three bedrooms, and a modern bathroom. Warmth is provided by gas central heating, and the property benefits from a combination of sash and case and double-glazed windows, blending traditional charm with modern comfort.

Externally, the property is set within well-maintained garden grounds and features its own private, fenced lawn and decking area with summer house—ideal for entertaining. The garden is landscaped with a selection of mature trees and shrubs, providing a sense of privacy and seclusion, enhanced by secure fencing. The apartment also benefits from a private single garage, as well as access to a shared parking area for residents and visitors.
