Asking Price: £800,000

Nestled in the picturesque south west region of rural Herefordshire, this charming character property offers a unique blend of rural tranquillity and modern living. Occupying an elevated position with far reaching views towards the Black Mountains to the west and the Malvern hills to the east, this beautifully presented detached property sits within more than 6 acres of gardens and grounds. The original stone built house has been much extended and remodelled over the years whilst retaining many of its original features and character and the accommodation now includes a superb detached ground floor annexe providing opportunities for multi-generational living, guest accommodation or possible rental potential. The main property is arranged over two floors with oil fired central heating and double glazing throughout and briefly comprises on the ground floor, a boot room, utility/shower room, kitchen breakfast room and four reception rooms. On the first floor, the landing provides access to three double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The detached annexe is fully double glazed with electric heating and has a fully fitted kitchen, living room, double bedroom and shower room. Both properties sit within stunning, beautifully landscaped gardens with an adjoining pasture of 5.76 acres, ideal for those with a love of nature or equestrian interests. The expansive grounds provide a perfect backdrop for relaxation and recreation, making it a true haven for nature lovers. The property is accessed via a country lane, into a drive with parking for multiple vehicles. On the opposite side of the lane is a single garage (5.50 x 3.74) and triple bay log store. This well-presented home is a rare find, combining character and charm with modern amenities, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a peaceful lifestyle in the heart of the Herefordshire countryside.

Location

Newton St Margarets is a scattered rural hamlet approximately 1.5 miles from Michaelchurch Escley with its well-regarded primary school, village hall and sports pavilion and 4 miles from Peterchurch which offers a range of facilities including village shop, post office, doctors surgery, a pub and restaurants. The property benefits from lying within the catchment area for the Ofsted Outstanding Fairfield High School. The larger regional centres of Hay on Wye (9.5 miles) famous for its annual Literary Festival and Hereford (12 miles) offer a wide range of social, shopping and leisure facilities.
