Nestled in the charming semi-rural area of Grafton, Hereford, this delightful detached bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort and potential. Built in the 1960s, the property boasts three well-proportioned bedrooms along with a converted loft, which has the potential to form two further bedrooms and bathroom (requires Building Regulations). The accommodation would ideally suit families who might seek the extra space and potential.

The inviting reception room provides a warm and welcoming atmosphere, perfect for relaxation or entertaining guests. Set on an impressive 1.2 acres of land, the property features expansive gardens that offer a wonderful opportunity for outdoor enjoyment and gardening enthusiasts. Additionally, a separate paddock adds to the appeal, providing ample space for various activities or even the possibility of keeping animals. While the bungalow may require some updating, this presents a fantastic opportunity for buyers to personalise the space to their taste and preferences. The absence of an onward chain simplifies the purchasing process, allowing for a smoother transition into your new home.
