Summary of Features

- Detached cottage with 2.5 acres
- Semi rural location on city fringes
- 3/4 Bedrooms, 2 Receptions
- Range of Outbuildings

Asking Price £630,000

A detached, mainly stone built cottage, which has been extended over the years and recently renovated to form the current accommodation. The property lies on the north-westerly fringes of the city, tucked away and set back from the road, enjoying a location which is semi rural, but yet accessible to the city. The property enjoys character with slate flooring through most of the ground floor with wood burner to the sitting room, as well as oil-fired central heating and Oak flooring to most of the first floor.

There is still much potential, by further improving the property by extending the kitchen or converting some of the outbuildings to form additional accommodation, subject to any Planning.

The cottage stands in about 2.5 acres with a range of outbuildings, which would lend themselves to buyers with equestrian interests or hobby farming.
