What the owner says.....

Coming from a city, we were searching for a charming village lifestyle close to nature to raise our children. We definitely found that in Wouldham. This picturesque village offers a perfect blend of peaceful living and a vibrant community.

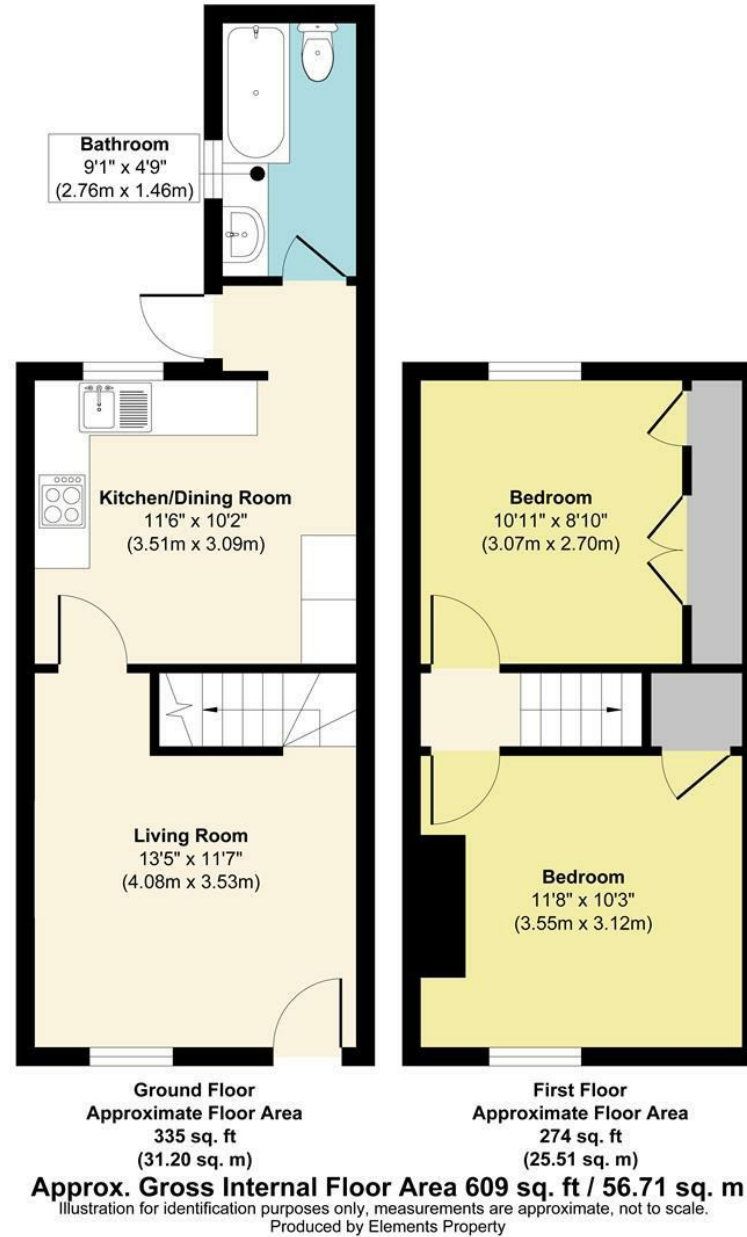

Our children thrived in Wouldham's primary school and enjoyed sunny days playing in the park, making lifelong friendships. Our dog loves the riverside walks along the scenic Medway, which we find is the perfect way to unwind after a long day, as well as a drink or two in one of the local pubs.

We've loved becoming part of a welcoming community, who gather for coffee mornings and frequent village events and celebrations.

We find it really convenient being able to stop at the local co-op and there are two friendly pubs, an award-winning Indian restaurant and a delightful Saturday fish and chip van.

We've loved our time in Wouldham and will be sad to go.
