City and County are excited to market this unique, detached family home located in arguably the most desirable location in Peterborough, situated on a large plot of land. Offering NO FORWARD CHAIN, six double bedrooms within the main residence, a double garage, and a one bedroom annex to the rear, with an outdoor swimming pool. Situated within walking distance to Peterborough train station.

Privately nestled across a sprawling 501m² lot, lies an impressive residential compound comprised of two distinct structures. The main building stands tall with two levels holding lavish living spaces, boasting six elegantly designed bedrooms, four immaculate bathrooms replete with bath and shower fixtures, a well-appointed kitchen that comes with a time-saving stove, and four living rooms each providing cosy respite courtesy of their individual fireplaces. A convenient wardrobe, a handy utility room, and a sunny conservatory are spread across the ground floor, together with most of the bedrooms and bathrooms, while two bedrooms, and a bathroom find their place on the first floor. Adding further value to this real estate offering, is a single-storey auxiliary building offering its own suite of comforts in the form of a well-equipped kitchen, a sunny conservatory with an enticing swimming pool, a gleaming bathroom with a shower, and a commodious bedroom. Additional features include a spacious room and a relaxing living room. A double garage in the main building provides ample space for vehicle parking and storage. This expansive property offers a luxurious lifestyle to its future homeowners. Please call today to organise a viewing to fully appreciate all that this home has to offer.
