Oundle Road

Peterborough, PE2 9QP

Guide Price £500,000 - £550,000
An exceptional investment opportunity in the heart of Peterborough, this executive detached property on Oundle Road is currently operating as a high yield serviced accommodation, generating approximately £70,000 per annum. With seven bedrooms in use, the property can accommodate up to fourteen guests, making it ideal for short-term lets or corporate stays. Previously granted planning permission for further extension, it offers potential for future development. The property benefits from spacious kitchen and dining areas, a storage room, an en-suite, and two additional bathrooms. A dedicated car park adds to its convenience. Offered with no forward chain and the option to purchase the company within which the property is held, this is an attractive prospect for investors looking for a ready-made income stream in a central location.

Designed to cater to the demands of serviced accommodation, this well-presented home provides a practical and spacious layout. The ground floor includes a bright entrance hall leading into versatile living spaces, while the kitchen and dining areas are thoughtfully arranged to accommodate multiple occupants. A separate utility room and storage space enhance functionality. Upstairs, the well-proportioned bedrooms offer flexibility, with one featuring an en-suite for added privacy. The additional bathrooms are fitted to support high occupancy, ensuring comfort and convenience. Outside, the dedicated car park provides ample space for residents or guests. Situated in a prime location with excellent transport links and local amenities nearby, this property is perfectly positioned for both short- and long-term rental success. With further development potential and no onward chain, it presents an unmissable opportunity for investors seeking strong returns in a sought-after area.
