Guide Price £425,000

The Property

An appealing, three bedroom, semi detached property being tastefully presented throughout, with a full width ground floor extension creating a superb open plan living/kitchen area and a convenient location, close to the train station, Metrolink and motorway network. Numerous other noteworthy features include a recently fitted kitchen with generous breakfast bar, double full-height patio doors opening to the enclosed patio & garden, lounge with bay window and separate dining area, bathroom with white suite & chrome fittings, lovely entrance hall with downstairs WC off and a useful entrance porch. In addition, there is a side garage & store, which currently has planning permission for a single storey side extension to create additional living accommodation (REF: 139125/FH/2024).
