A delightful semi-detached period cottage set on the edge of the village of Bekesbourne. The accommodation is attractively presented and includes a large sitting room with dual aspect and a brick wall feature. There is a large kitchen with a range cooker and decorative fireplace (ornamental purposes only) a separate dining room as well as a rear utility/boot room and separate W.C. On the first floor are three bedrooms, one with an impressive en-suite shower room and the family bathroom with a separate bath and shower. The property benefits from countryside views, gas fired central heating and replacement double glazed UPVC sliding sash windows. The garden has a large patio and is mainly laid to lawn surrounded by mature hedging and a pretty metal fence to one side. There is a large new patio and side path leading to the shingle parking area and shed.

Bekesbourne boasts a mainline railway station with regular services to Canterbury and London. The surrounding countryside offers lovely cycling and walking. The nearby village of Bridge provides comprehensive local facilities whilst the Cathedral City of Canterbury is easily accessible and offers a wide range of shopping and leisure facilities plus an impressive range of schools, colleges and universities. Canterbury West Station offers High-Speed rail services to London St. Pancras.
