Bekesbourne, Canterbury, CT4 5EH

£625,000 Freehold

This exceptional former oast house combines character, space, and an enviable setting with breathtaking, uninterrupted views across idyllic, unspoilt countryside. Immaculately maintained and thoughtfully arranged, the property offers a versatile layout that is both welcoming and surprisingly spacious.

At the heart of the home is a large kitchen and dining area — a warm and inviting space featuring a wood-burning stove, high-quality fitted units with quartz worktops, integrated appliances and a larder cupboard. From here, you can enjoy panoramic views across the beautifully tended garden and beyond to rolling countryside, perfectly framed by large windows.

French doors lead from the kitchen to an impressive conservatory designed to capture those beautiful rural views.

The generously proportioned sitting room also features a wood-burning stove, creating a cosy atmosphere ideal for winter nights. An entrance hall completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, the landing leads to three spacious double bedrooms, all of which enjoy open views over the surrounding landscape. The principal bedroom benefits from a sizeable en-suite shower room.

Outside, the property is approached via a private driveway providing ample off-road parking. The rear garden is a true highlight — beautifully landscaped with mature trees and shrubs, and thoughtfully designed to make the most of the outstanding scenery. A decked seating area provides the perfect vantage point for enjoying the peaceful, panoramic countryside views. The garden also includes a shed and is enclosed by fencing and hedging, ensuring privacy without compromising the outlook.

Located in the picturesque village of Bekesbourne, the property benefits from a mainline railway station with direct services to Canterbury and London. The area is ideal for walking and cycling, with miles of scenic routes to explore. Nearby villages such as Bridge and Littlebourne offer excellent local amenities, while the historic city of Canterbury is just a short drive away, offering a wide range of shops, restaurants, leisure facilities, and highly regarded schools. High-Speed rail services from Canterbury West station provide a direct link to London St. Pancras in under an hour.
