- Detached five bedroom farmhouse
- 9.3 acres of agricultural land to the rear
- Additional plot with full planning permission granted for a new build four bedroom detached house
- No chain
- Wonderful rural views
- Lots of potential for modernisation & improvement

The Rookery is a charming and characterful farmhouse offering spacious and versatile accommodation, with ample scope to modernise and create a home tailored to individual tastes while retaining its rustic appeal. With far-reaching countryside views and generous internal spaces, the property has all the potential to become a truly stunning family home.

The inclusion of the adjoining plot - with full planning permission already granted for a new-build four-bedroom detached home adds significant value and opportunity. Whether developed for family use or future investment, this is a noteworthy asset rarely found alongside an established farmhouse.

The property also includes 9.3 acres of agricultural land to the rear, which forms part of the same title and lies directly behind the farmhouse.

Staple is a delightful rural village with a strong sense of community. Its historic Saxon church, active village hall with events such as the ever-popular Staple Country Fayre and The Black Pig pub & restaurant all contribute to its welcoming charm. The surrounding countryside offers miles of walking routes and unspoilt scenery.

Nearby larger villages, including Ash and Wingham, provide a range of amenities such as a general store, doctor and dentist surgeries, pharmacy, and newsagents. Well-regarded primary schools can be found in Wingham, Goodnestone, and Ash, while both Sandwich and Canterbury offer excellent Grammar and private secondary schooling options.

Opportunities of this calibre in the village of Staple are exceptionally rare - making The Rookery, with its additional building plot and extensive land, a truly remarkable and exciting prospect.
