

Nestled in the picturesque village of Harlington, Dunstable, this delightful one-bedroom ground floor flat on Strafford Close offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Offered with 951 years lease still remaining, the property has been thoughtfully redesigned, featuring a welcoming and open plan living / kitchen area which provides a warm and inviting space for relaxation or entertaining guests. The well-appointed bedroom is ideal for restful nights, while the en-suite shower room is functional and meets all your essential needs.

One of the standout features of this apartment is its prime location. Set in a tranquil residential area, it is just a short walk from the mainline train station, which offers a regular service to London and beyond, making it an excellent choice for commuters. The surrounding community is vibrant and friendly, with local shops, schools, and open spaces all within easy reach, ensuring that you have everything you need right at your doorstep.

This flat presents an exceptional opportunity for first-time buyers or professionals seeking a peaceful retreat with excellent transport links.

We highly recommend internal viewings to fully appreciate the appeal of this lovely property and the lifestyle it offers. Don't miss your chance to experience village life while remaining well-connected to the bustling city.
