Gardens & Grounds

Set within approximately six acres of idyllic countryside, the beautiful gardens of this distinguished 18th-century Grade II listed residence offer a rare blend of period charm and recreational facilities to suit a wide range of interests. The grounds are approached via a gated entrance, leading to a spacious driveway with parking for several vehicles.

Mature trees and well-established shrubs frame sweeping lawns, providing privacy and seasonal colour throughout the year. The expansive grounds include a paddock with its own access and water supply - ideal for equestrian or smallholding use - as well as an original, disused tennis court that could be easily reinstated for recreation.

A charming former coach house offers garaging and is now suited for storage of sit-on lawn mowers and garden equipment.

The gardens enjoy splendid views over the surrounding countryside, and a portion of the grounds would lend itself beautifully to a formal croquet lawn, further enhancing the property's heritage appeal.
