The Property

Nestled in a quiet cul-de-sac, this immaculately presented 3 bedroom end terrace is located in a red row development and within walking distance of Timperley village with all its shops and amenities. The property has been well maintained and is in walk in condition.

Internally, on the ground floor, with Karndean flooring throughout you have the porch area, lounge and kitchen diner, which has patio doors to the rear garden. There is also understairs storage. To the first floor you are met by 2 double bedrooms with a main bedroom ensuite, a further single bedroom and immaculate family bathroom.

Externally the property has off road parking for two cars and a lovely south facing and enclosed rear garden with lawn, patio area and established flower beds.

Viewings are strongly advised to appreciate this homely property.
