

A stunning, fully renovated and extended detached house, sitting within 0.64 acres of level, landscaped, private, gated grounds, on a private lane of just three houses near the village of Mobberley. This stunning house has been re-modelled and fully re-furnished to the very highest of standards, with a no-expense spared mantra creating a stylish, spacious, perfectly formed four bedroom family home.

Accessed via electric gates set between curved mellow brick walls one arrives to a paved parking area large enough for eight cars, and to the integral double garage. A Georgian entrance portico leads to the front security door and into a spacious and light reception hall. Crittall style doors lead to the Office, Living Room, Guest Cloakroom and stunning open plan Kitchen / Living / Dining Room, having bi-folding doors overlooking an expansive terrace and the beautiful rear garden. The Kitchen is simply stunning with an oversized island, five oven electric Aga, huge Fisher & Paykel Fridge / Freezer and butlers pantry. To the rear of the kitchen area is a stylish bar with wine & beer fridges for those evenings entertaining. There's a large utility room, boot room, store room / dog utility before entering the double garage.

To the first floor are four generous bedrooms, the Master having fitted wardrobes, real effect fire and luxurious en-suite, Bedroom Two again has an en-suite bathroom, with the further two bedrooms sharing the newly fitted shower room. Externally the grounds are a delight with a south facing aspect, mature trees to the boundaries, and large terraces to the rear and side. All in all, if you're looking for a turn-key house in a semi rural, yet easily accessible location, this impressive home must be viewed to be appreciated.
