

46 New Hall Street, Macclesfield, SK10 3AA

Located in a quiet and pleasant cul-de-sac, within close walking distance of the town centre, West Park and excellent transport links. This particular family home is set back from the road behind a small front garden and offers a fabulous blend of a bygone era along side modern day comforts. The elegant interior design retains much of the character typical of the era in which it was built in the form of a Minton tiled floor, fireplaces, deep skirting boards and high ceilings with cornice. These features combined with modern conveniences, such as gas fired central heating via a Vaillant boiler and double glazed windows, provide a warm and comfortable home in which to live. In brief the property comprises; entrance hall, living room featuring a fireplace with attractive tiled inserts and hearth, spacious dining room with French doors opening to the conservatory, stylish breakfast kitchen, downstairs WC and cellar. To the first floor there is ample space on the landing for a study area (originally bedroom three) and access to two spacious bedrooms and family bathroom. Stairs lead up from the main landing to a converted loft room. The fabulous Southerly facing rear garden is the real feature and of a good size with a stone flagged patio areas to sit and relax with friends and enjoy the setting. Various flowerbeds and shrubs to the borders. Step up through a rose archway to a secluded lawned garden with various shrubs fencing and brick walling to the borders.

Location

New Hall Street is situated in a highly convenient location just a short stroll from the town and comprises a pleasant mixture of mainly older style properties. Set in Cheshire's plains, on the fringe of the Peak District National Park, Macclesfield combines the old with the new. Originally a medieval town, Macclesfield became the country's 'Silk' capital in the 1750's, whilst it still retains that heritage, in recent years it has grown to become a thriving business centre. Macclesfield is a modern shopping centre with a range of leisure facilities to suit most tastes. There is a popular monthly Treacle Market which is a bustling Arts, Antiques, Crafts, Food and Drink Market, held on the cobbles of the town centre with around 140 stalls of exceptional food and drink, unique crafts and vintage and information from the Macclesfield community. There are many independent and state primary and secondary schools. The access points of the North West Motorway network system, Manchester International Airport and some of Cheshire's finest countryside are close at hand. Intercity rail links to London Euston and Manchester Piccadilly can be found at Macclesfield and Wilmslow railway stations as well as commuter rail links to the local business centres.
