21 Stokesay Road, Sale, M33 6QN

This impressive property provides a rare opportunity to purchase a sizeable, well-maintained residence with large secure rear south facing garden in a much sought after setting close to Sale Town Centre, Ashton-on-Mersey Village, and key transport links. Situated within the catchment area for the popular Ashton on Mersey High School, this beautiful home offers spacious accommodation, with three generous reception rooms, including an enhanced conservatory, three well-proportioned double bedrooms, an impressive recently refitted kitchen, and a professionally built and highly versatile large garden room/office with electricity and heating. The house further boasts a number of desirable period features and numerous recent improvements, including a full re-roof, kitchen, boiler, and multiple windows. Externally, there is gated driveway parking for multiple cars to the front and side access to the detached garage at the rear. Enclosed with timber fencing, the south facing rear garden is mainly laid to lawn but also benefits from two large Indian stone patio seating areas. A further smaller Indian stone patio sits to the rear of the garden next to the detached garden room. EPC Rating Awaited. Council Tax Band E. Freehold.
