Offered as top of chain and to an extremely high standard, a generously proportioned two bedroom mansion apartment on the first floor of this period property close to Tunbridge Wells town centre and Dunorlan Park. Perhaps only properly understood by arranging an appointment to view, the property benefits tremendously from a number of impressive period features, a high quality of fixtures, fittings and carpets throughout, and a beautiful private balcony with far reaching views accessed from the lounge. Other particularly attractive features are the size of the principal bedroom with its further high standard en-suite facility, an attractive fireplace to the lounge, a well designed and spacious kitchen and also generous storage in the form of fitted wardrobes throughout, a large cupboard in the lobby area outside of the front door and a further large cupboard within. An additional benefit is a further private lock up area in the lower ground floor of the main building, accessed via the left hand side of the main building of approximately 6ft x 10ft. The property also enjoys a single allocated parking space to the left hand side adjacent to the front door of the main building. The property will be particularly suitable for anybody seeking to downsize from a larger property but still enjoy period features and good room sizes or anybody indeed seeking an exclusive property in an exclusive building.
