This very desirable four double bedroom period home started out as a much smaller cottage believed to have been original built during the 1750's with later Victorian additions to create what is now a sizeable family home. As you would expect the property has a wide range of period features which includes a wonderful inglenook fireplace within the dining room, plenty of exposed wall and ceiling timbers, two individual staircases and a former stable that has been converted into a large garage. More modern additions include gas fired central heating via radiators, part secondary double glazing, bathroom and en-suite shower room, utility room and downstairs cloakroom and additional parking to the front of the property. Set in a conservation area within the popular village of Langton Green with its local village stores and pub, this really is a rare opportunity and therefore we have no hesitation in recommending interested applicants to view without delay.

The accommodation comprises. Part glazed entrance door to:
