SITUATION:

The property is in a pleasant and quiet residential cul-de-sac in the St. Johns area of Royal Tunbridge Wells. St. Johns itself has a particularly well regarded primary school and grammar school alongside a good retail area with metro supermarkets, popular restaurants and public house and a host of further independent retailers. Beyond this Tunbridge Wells is a mile away with its far broader mix of quality retailers and national multiples, a number of excellent facilities and a host of well regarded primary, secondary, grammar and independent schools. The town has two theatres and a choice of railway stations at either Tunbridge Wells or High Brooms, both of which offer fast and frequent services to London and the South Coast. Tunbridge Wells is justifiably famous for its architecture, the traditional Old High Street and the Pantiles with its colonnaded walkways and alfresco dining.
