This stylish well presented ground floor apartment is a five minute walk to the village and spans an impressive sixty square metres in size providing two double bedrooms and an open plan living kitchen.

Smart tonal wall decoration is complimented by smart contemporary brushed metal light switches and sockets, recessed LED lighting, whilst the shower room has an oversized cubicle.

The property is ideal for those wanting proximity to the centre and would make an ideal first purchase or suit professionals. To the outside, a courtyard garden and parking space. Entry to the property is via a security phone entry system.

On entry, the hallway has a useful under stairs cupboard.

To the kitchen area there are base and eye level cupboard units in a beech finish with an integrated Smeg electric oven and hob with stainless steel extractor hood over, a slimline dishwasher, washing machine and a side by side fridge and freezer. The counter tops are granite with matching splashbacks providing a luxuriant appearance.

Beyond the kitchen the living area is well lit facing due south with a pair of double glazed doors providing access to the paved outside space and parking.

The main bedroom is to the front with four recessed LED lights. The second double bedroom is to the rear with recessed halogen lights, both bedrooms are well presented.

The shower room has full tiling to the walls and floor, a mains shower in a cubicle, ladder design centrally heated towel rail, hidden cistern WC, shaver point and double cupboard below the wash hand basin with illuminated mirror above.

The building has an appealing street scene with metal railings fronting the pavement and the outside space is an added bonus for any apartment.
