Originally two residences, this delightful double fronted period cottage has an amazing position next to Cotes Mill and adjacent to the weir (don't worry, substantial flood defences and the environment agencies flood risk is very low, see map.)

The accommodation is over three floors and there are wonderful features throughout including quarry tiled floor, wood burning stove, period cast iron grates and beamed ceilings along with exposed brickwork.

Initially on entry, the porch has a Welsh slate floor. The sitting room has a quarry tiled floor and bay window. The kitchen diner adjacent also has a bay window, side elevation window with a view over the weir, built in electric oven and hob, plumbing for a washing machine and dishwasher and a comprehensive range of storage cupboard units.

The lounge has a dual aspect with double doors out to the side, three rear elevation windows, focal point of a substantial wood burning stove on a raised stone hearth with exposed brick back and stone chimney and is illuminated. Adjacent to this are doors to the conservatory and views over the garden.

The side entry porch is from the sitting room and here there is also a WC.

At first floor, the landing has a wonderful shaped timber spindled gallery balustrade and provides access to all first floor rooms.

The master bedroom has a dual aspect and substantial en-suite, a cupboard discreetly houses the oil fired central heating system. Within the en-suite is an enamel free standing bath.

Bedroom two is to the rear and has wonderful views over the garden and waterway, whilst bedroom four is to the front and is another double bedroom.

The bathroom has four elements within including a shower cubicle, second enamel roll top bath and an exposed timber floor.

At second floor the room is enormous and has excellent potential, bedroom two, but it could always become the master bedroom depending on choice and also has an en-suite.

Outside to the front, there is an expanse of coloured stones which provide off road car parking for at least four vehicles, a picket fence encloses the fore garden, a gate from the driveway via a brick wall leads to the side garden and to the conservatory and paved patio, the lawn sweeps round with mature trees with walls to either side and robust flood defences to the right.

Please refer to the pictures to fully appreciate the amazing, stunning individual setting.

To find the property, from Loughborough proceed along Nottingham Road passing The Brush continuing on Nottingham Road into Cotes, the property is just before deVOL Kitchens, situated on the left hand side identified by the agent's 'For Sale' board.
