It is with great pleasure that we offer for sale this most imposing and substantial end period terraced family home which affords spacious living accommodation laid out over three floors together with a useful range of cellar rooms. The property occupies an enviable corner position with garden areas to three sides together with off road parking to the rear. A beautiful entrance door and surround leads to a most welcoming hall which in turn leads to the good size lounge, separate sitting/dining room, modern breakfast kitchen and downstairs shower room. A spindled staircase in the hall leads to the first floor where two large double bedrooms, a large bathroom and a utility room will be found. A further staircase leads to the second floor landing and three further bedrooms making five in total.

The property is warmed by a gas central heating system and double glazing is installed. The property is in need of some updating but does have the essential charm and character of its era and all the ingredients are there for a purchaser to make improvements to their own taste and requirements. Freehold. Council tax band D. Thornfield Road is just a short walk away from local amenities including shops, bars, restaurants, cafes, sports facilities, boutique Savoy cinema and schools for children of all ages. For the commuter Heaton Chapel train station is a 0.8 mile walk away and operates into both Stockport and Manchester centres.
