Brightestmove are delighted to present this attractive detached bungalow, located in the sought-after village of Middlezoy.

This well-maintained home benefits from double glazing throughout and features stylish fitted shutter blinds. The spacious accommodation includes three generously sized double bedrooms and a recently renovated shower room, complete with a high-quality 'Mira' electric shower.

A light-filled dual-aspect living room creates a welcoming space for relaxation, while the modern kitchen comes equipped with contemporary appliances.

To the rear, a bright conservatory offers lovely views over the well-kept garden, perfect for enjoying the outdoors year-round.

Additional features include two practical storage sheds, an insulated garage, and ample parking. This charming bungalow offers both comfort and convenience, making it a must-see for those seeking village living in a peaceful setting.

The village of Middlezoy is situated approximately 7 miles to the east of Bridgwater and 10 miles from Taunton. It has a church, Post Office/shop, primary school and pub. It is ideally situated for exploring the famous Somerset Levels.
