BUILDING PLOT

An incredibly rare opportunity to purchase a fantastic building plot in a rural location on the outskirts of Ladock. Situated at the end of a private driveway, the granted planning permission details an extensive property, amassing 1850 square feet. Occupying an extensive plot with the proposed plans include a substantial four bedroom detached dwelling with driveway access and double garaging. The property enjoys wonderful rolling countryside views to the front.

LADOCK

Ladock is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro city with a good range of village facilities including public house, primary school, parish church, post office and superb village hall with regular clubs and activities. Probus is within a couple of miles of where there are further facilities and the Cathedral city of Truro which is renowned for its excellent shops, restaurants and main line railway line linking to London (Paddington). Ladock is ideally located for access to the south and north Cornish coasts and Newquay airport is approximately thirteen miles to the north.

SPECIAL NOTES

The entrance drive from the local highway is presently concreted but in poor condition. The vendors will re-concrete the main part of the driveway following completion of building works of the building plot and the cost of this is to be shared. An estimate of the likely cost can be discussed with the sole agents.

PLAN

The package available and included within the sale is outlined in red. Please note that the proposed purchaser will share a right of way across the brown hatched driveway.

- Please note that the proposed development set out in this application is liable for a charge under the Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) Regulations 2010 (as amended). The existing floorspace will be taken into consideration during calculation of the chargeable amount. A CIL Liability Notice will be sent to the applicant, and any other person who has an interest in the land, under separate cover. The Liability Notice will contain details of the chargeable amount and how to claim exemption or relief, if appropriate - relief must be claimed and approved before the development commences. This development must not commence until the following forms have been submitted to the Council: CIL Form 2: Assumption of Liability and Form 6: Commencement Notice, otherwise surcharges will be applied. Please contact cil@cornwall.gov.uk or the Infrastructure Team with any queries. There are further details on this process on the Council's website at www.cornwall.gov.uk/cil.

- The developer(s) is encouraged to use low carbon, sustainable and best practice building methods in the construction of the dwelling to ensure that it is as energy efficient as possible, in light of the Council's plan to tackle the climate emergency and help Cornwall cut its carbon footprint. All proposals should fully consider and develop opportunities for nature recovery and the provision of good quality green infrastructure for people and nature in their proposals in line with the policies of the Climate Emergency DPD and the Cornwall Design Guide.

- There may be circumstances where a European protected species is discovered on a development site after planning permission has already been granted. In such cases you are advised to contact the Secretary of State (Defra) who will determine applications for derogations in the form of a licence under regulation 44 of the 1994 Regulations. In determining such applications, the Secretary of State (Defra) will seek advice from the Local Planning Authority and Natural England on whether the Directives tests are met. This may occur if the species moves onto a site in the interim between grant of planning permission and start of works, or if the presence of the species was simply not known at the time of planning permission application. This may cause difficulties and delays for developers, and stresses the need for sound ecological survey information on which to base decisions where it is suspected that European protected species may be present.
