GENERAL COMMENTS

Tregairewoon Cottage is a very attractive Grade II Listed thatched cottage, located in an idyllic rural setting, deep in the heart of the Roseland Peninsula. The location is very special and will appeal to purchasers wanting a quiet, rural setting that is within a very short distance of the coast, sandy beaches and excellent village facilities at Portscatho and St Mawes. The cottage has been in the same ownership for generations is in need of sympathetic refurbishment but offers huge potential. The accommodation includes two bedrooms on the first floor with kitchen/breakfast room, dining room, sitting room bathroom and large rear porch downstairs. The large gardens surround the cottage and are a sheer delight being extremely private and backing onto open countryside with far reaching views. They are large and include many mature shrubs and plants, level lawns enclosed within natural hedge boundaries. A driveway provides parking for several cars.

LOCATION

The nearest village is Portscatho which is approximately 2 miles away. Portscatho and neighbouring Gerrans between them offer a range of shops, two public houses, social club, galleries, post office, primary school and doctors surgery. St. Mawes is approximately 4 miles away which has a regular foot passenger ferry service to Falmouth. The city of Truro is approximately sixteen miles by road but there is also a short cut route via the King Harry Ferry. Sailing facilities are available at nearby Percuil, there are a variety of beaches in the area whilst coastal and inland walks abound and most of which are owned and protected by the National Trust.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
