PRICE GUIDE £50,000

SMALL BUT VALUABLE PARCEL OF LAND WITH CREEK FRONTAGE.

This small piece of land has been in the same family ownership for very many years. It comprises a mere strip of land fronting the narrow access road known as "The Tram" and extending to the tidal Penpol Creek which merges with Restronguet Creek just a short distance away. It is within an area of great scenic attraction and particularly sought-after by those persons with boating interests. The availability of this land is a rare opportunity and especially for those with property in the area wanting private access to the creek and an area for boat storage.

The land is a mere 10 feet (3.5 metres) at its frontage to the road although it widens as it approaches the creek edge. A pedestrian gate provides access from the road whilst a dock at the other end gives frontage to the foreshore. The land is grassed but there is also a mature apple tree.

OFFERS ARE INVITED FOR THE LAND BY SERIOUS APPLICANTS BASED ON A GUIDE PRICE OF £50,000
