GENERAL COMMENTS

An increasingly rare opportunity to purchase a detached traditional stone barn with detailed planning consent for conversion into two homes. The barn is a handsome two storey traditional stone barn in a quiet former farmyard setting in the village of Troon with pleasant views from the rear. Building regulations have been submitted for the barns and new builds and a materialistic start has been made to keep the planning live. Each barn will have two bedrooms and bathroom on the first floor with kitchen/dining room, sitting room and cloakroom downstairs. The larger barn on the eastern side will also have a utility room. Each barn will have two parking spaces at the front and the western barn has additional parking at the rear. Both barns will have small enclosed rear gardens.

Planning permission was granted by Cornwall Council on 22 February 2021 application reference number PA20/04948 for "Conversion of barn to two residential dwellings".
