GENERAL COMMENTS

2 The Bowling Green is an attractive middle terraced modern house located in a tucked away position at the very beginning of this sought after development within St Just In Roseland. The house has been in the same ownership since construction in 1996 and has been well cared for. It has been improved in recent years including a modern replacement kitchen, new shower room, new entrance door and several double glazed windows. Four replacement double glazed windows have been ordered for the first floor rooms and will be installed prior to completion.

The accommodation includes three bedrooms and bathroom on the first floor with kitchen, sitting/dining room and shower room downstairs. There are sea views over Carrick Roads towards Falmouth from the front bedroom. Outside is a private enclosed garden, driveway parking and a short distance away is a single garage and further parking space for two cars. The house is sold with no chain.

LOCATION

St. Just-in-Roseland village which is most widely known for its historic church and churchyard set beside the beautiful tidal creek where subtropical plants grow alongside the native trees and flora.

The property is also close to St Mawes and this has an international reputation as one of the country's most sought after areas in which to reside with a distinctive Mediterranean atmosphere. The village provides a good selection of individual shops including a small supermarket, delicatessen, hotels, restaurants, inns, primary school and a very active sailing club.

The whole of the Roseland Peninsula is designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty and offers superb scenery and walks, a number of beautiful beaches, coves and a general feeling of peace and tranquility. At St. Mawes there is a passenger ferry to the historic harbour town of Falmouth and the King Harry car ferry provides for an easy commute to Falmouth and the Cathedral city of Truro.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
