THE PROPERTY

Kerrobot Cottage is a delightful period cottage located in a quiet position along Chapel Street in Probus, which is within a short walk of the village centre. The cottage has been wonderfully upgraded during the current ownership, with the implementation of modern kitchen and shower room suites, a downstairs w.c., new gas central heating boiler and new windows and doors to name a few improvements. The property oozes character features throughout, and is much larger than first apparent and in all, the accommodation comprises; three bedrooms, study and a spacious shower room on the first floor with entrance porch, sitting room (with feature wood burning stove), kitchen/dining room and w.c. to the ground floor. Externally there are pleasant enclosed front and rear gardens with the rear garden benefitting from two patios. There is also a useful storage room which houses the washing machine. Alongside the cottage is a driveway providing parking for two/three vehicles.

PROBUS

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese and Indian takeaways and even a fish and chip shop. A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.
