GENERAL COMMENTS

Long Meadow is a contemporary detached residence, constructed to an exceptional standard by the current owner in 2020. Thoughtfully designed with both aesthetics and functionality in mind, the property prioritises sustainability and energy efficiency.

It features high levels of insulation, an air source heating system with under floor heating and radiators, and solar panels, complemented by strategically positioned windows and skylights that enhance natural light and frame breath taking views of the surrounding countryside.

The distinctive mono-pitch roof design ensures privacy while maximising the property's advantageous position. The accommodation is arranged over a reverse-level layout, offering over 2,300 square feet of living space, high-quality fixtures and fittings throughout, and a double garage, along with ample parking and turning space.

This exceptional home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a property of such calibre in a truly outstanding location.

The gardens and grounds extend to approximately 1.6 acres, offering a blend of landscaped and natural spaces. Accessed via electronic gates from Mill Lane, a sweeping gravel driveway leads to the property. The grounds feature an expansive lawn that gently slopes away from the house, complemented by a small raised orchard to the side, planted with a variety of trees.

To the south of the property, a landscaped red brick terrace has been thoughtfully designed for low-maintenance enjoyment, providing an ideal space for outdoor seating and dining.

Beyond the formal gardens, the lower meadow and a small area of woodland present versatile opportunities, from hobby farming and orchard cultivation to wildlife observation or simply creating an open space for dog exercise and recreation.

TREGONY

Tregony is a thriving community, sometimes referred to as the "gateway to the Roseland" offering a post office, shop, pub, Churches and both excellent primary and secondary schools are within a short walk. The village is easily accessible to the whole of the Roseland Peninsula.

The harbourside villages of Portloe and Portscatho are each about four and seven miles distant, and St Mawes is about 11 miles to the south. The sandy beaches of Pendower and Carne where there is convenient access to some superb coastal footpaths and open National Trust land with beautiful walks.

The city of Truro is about seven miles and St. Austell slightly further. The village also has the benefit of a regular bus service.

TRURO

Truro is renowned for its excellent shopping centre, fine selection of restaurants, bars, private and state schools and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The Hall for Cornwall is also a popular venue providing all year round entertainment and other cultural facilities include the Royal Cornwall Museum and the historic Cathedral.

DIRECTIONS

From the A3078 on Tregony Bridge proceed up Tregony Hill into the village and at the top of the hill (just after passing the Almshouses on the right hand side) take the sharp left turning which then bends to the right and continues in the front of the cottages forming Mill Lane. Continue to the very bottom of the lane where the property can be found.
