THE PROPERTY

Lanherne is a wonderful period property situated in the heart of the idyllic village of Veryan, close to the wide range of amenities and within walking distance of the beautiful south coast beaches of Carne and Pendower. The property has been a much loved home for over twenty years and offers light and spacious accommodation throughout; with real charm and many character features including sash windows, high ceilings, stained glass doors and feature fireplaces. Enjoying a pleasant outlook to the front with views of the Church, in all, the accommodation spans across three floors and comprises; entrance hallway, sitting room with log burner, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room and a rear porch to the ground floor, with three double bedrooms (one en-suite shower room) and a family bathroom to the first floor. There is also a large decorated and carpeted attic room which has previously been occupied as a further double bedroom & office space so provides a versatile additional living space. There is a lovely, mature garden to the front of the property laid to lawn with gated side access leading to a patio dining area and south facing rear courtyard. There is a professional sound studio, outbuilding and utility room to the rear providing lots of versatility.

VERYAN

Veryan is situated in the heart of The Roseland Peninsula and is famous for its picturesque round houses built by a local clergyman in the 19th century. The village lies within a mile of the sandy beaches of Pendower and Carne where there is access to some superb coastal footpaths and open National Trust land with beautiful walks. Lanherne is in the centre of the village which offers a thriving community with excellent day to day facilities, including a Post office, primary school, church, pub and sport club with indoor and outdoor bowls and tennis courts. There is a local bus service connecting to St. Mawes and Truro. For a more comprehensive range of shopping facilities the cathedral city of Truro is approximately 12 miles distance and offers banking and shopping facilities and an assortment of recreational activities. There is also a mainline railway station linking to London Paddington.
