GENERAL COMMENTS

Lamorna is a characterful two bedroom end terrace cottage situated in the rural hamlet of Tucoyse on the edge of the Roseland Peninsula within close proximity to the nearby village of Tregony. Period features include deep window alcoves and beams. This complex of individual properties is very attractive and in all the accommodation comprises a dining room, sitting room, kitchen, two bedrooms and a shower room. The property has been used as a holiday let in it's most recent years but will be sold with no onward chain. There is a large garden opposite the property which has a summerhouse and lawned area. There is two parking spaces available.

SERVICE CHARGE

We are informed by the owners that there is a service charge of circa £400.00 per year which includes cutting the grass of the gardens and communal areas and drainage.

LOCATION

The nearby Tregony is a thriving village sometimes referred to as the "Gateway to the Roseland" about eight miles from Truro with local facilities including general store, public house, churches and both primary and secondary schools. Scenic attractions of the Roseland peninsula are within easy driving distance and include the communities of Portloe, Portholland, Portscatho and Ruanlanihorne. It is ideally situated for riding, sailing and other water pursuits and many of the beaches and coastal land around the peninsula are owned and protected by the National Trust. Newquay airport is about thirty five minutes driving distance, there is a main line railway link to London (Paddington) at Truro and St. Austell.
