GENERAL COMMENTS

Chapel House is a very attractive period house located in the centre of Probus and enjoying fabulous views over the village square, church and countryside beyond. It is beautifully presented and has been greatly improved in recent years by the current owners in a sympathetic way and retains much charm and character. The boiler was replaced in 2022. The accommodation includes a large kitchen/dining room, spacious sitting room with woodburner and French doors that open into the garden, three bedrooms and bathroom. Outside is a surprisingly large enclosed garden that is completely private and enjoys a sunny aspect. A patio provides plenty of sitting out space, there is a raised garden with very useful timber workshop with light and power so perfect as a home office or gym. The house is double glazed with mains gas central heating. Full fibre is connected to the house for high broadband speeds. At the front are two parking spaces. An internal viewing is essential.

The village boasts a popular farm shop and butchers, village shop and post office, parish church, primary school, village hall, doctors surgery, Chinese and Indian restaurants, fish and chip shop and public house. It has an excellent bus service with a very regular connection to Truro and St. Austell including for those travelling to both the local secondary schools and college. Truro is approximately six miles away with its excellent shopping centre. Waitrose together with the Cornish Food Hall is less than ten minutes away on the Probus side of the city.
