GENERAL COMMENTS

The location of Goonvrea Farm Bungalow is very special indeed and within an area that is notably unspoiled; rolling farmland predominates and high Cornish hedgerows are attractively wooded. It enjoys a quiet rural setting on the edge of Perranwell Station yet is within a mile of village facilities and strategically positioned for quick access to Truro, Falmouth, Mylor marina for sailing and the A30 for quick commuting. The cathedral city of Truro is approximately six miles away which is the capital of the county with excellent shops, restaurants, private and state schools and main line railway link to London. The property is surrounded by fantastic mature gardens that extend to 1.4 acres with heated swimming pool and numerous outbuildings as well as garaging for six cars. The whole of the land slopes gently to the south and catches sun all day through to sunset. The property will suit a wide range of persons looking for that special country home with complete privacy yet not too far away from Truro and Falmouth.

THE PROPERTY

A very spacious detached single storey country home designed to take full advantage of the south facing site with fine views over the surrounding gardens, adjoining fields and countryside beyond. All of the rooms are of a good proportion with high ceilings and large windows affording plenty of natural light. There is lots of living space including a spacious sitting/dining room, two conservatories and fitted kitchen plus a family bathroom and cloakroom. There are five bedrooms, two have en suite shower rooms and dressing areas. The accommodation is extremely versatile and easily split to provide an annexe for a dependent relative. The large attached garage has high electric roller doors, designed for a motor home and has potential for conversion subject to consent. Photovoltaic panels reduce electricity costs and provide income from the feed in tariff. A further array has battery storage. An internal viewing is essential.

LOCATION

Perranarworthal with neighbouring Perranwell is a very popular and thriving community almost midway between Truro and Falmouth and easily accessible. The village has a range of facilities for day to day needs including church, public houses, primary school as well as a modern village hall with its associated range of social activities. The area is also well placed for access to the creeks of the Fal Estuary and Mylor Yacht harbour with its deep water moorings is literally just a few minutes drive away. The city of Truro with its Cathedral and fine shopping centre is about seven miles.

Two double doors, light and power.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

The dwelling is surrounded by fabulous mature gardens that provide privacy and separation from neighbours. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with magnificent trees interspersed with specimen shrubs and plants as well as many mature apple trees. At the bottom of the garden is a large natural pond and the whole garden is a haven for wildlife and birds. The swimming pool is enclosed and heated by solar panels. There is a greenhouse and potting shed with outside tap and large vegetable garden.

ORCHARD AND WOOD

A gate leads from the rear garden into the side garden where the current owners have established an amazing woodland and apple orchard which is magnificent. Lots of Cornish apple trees and specimen trees have been planted and are well established interspersed with lawns and other mature shrubs and fruit trees including pear, walnut, cherry, plums and medlar. Wide mowed pathways meander through the trees creating lovely walks and there are far reaching countryside views from the rear boundary - the whole garden is enclosed. A summerhouse has been strategically positioned to enjoy the peaceful, wooded setting.
