THE PROPERTY

Post Cottage is a two/three bedroom end of terrace cottage located in the middle of the village in Tregony, and within a short walk of the variety of amenities including the shop, public house, both primary and secondary schools and the playing field. Full of charm and character features, the property is beautifully presented and in all, the accommodation comprises; open plan sitting/dining room, kitchen and bedroom three/utility/garden room and shower room to the ground floor with two bedrooms and a bathroom to the first floor. There is a mature, enclosed rear garden leading to off road parking for at least three vehicles. There is oil fired central heating, a wood burning stove and double glazing.

TREGONY

Tregony is a thriving community, sometimes referred to as the "gateway to the Roseland" offering a post office, shop, pub, Churches and both primary and secondary schools are within a short 10 minute walk. The village is easily accessible to the whole of the Roseland Peninsula and hence very much a centre for tourism during the summer months. The city of Truro is about seven miles and St. Austell slightly further. The village also has the benefit of a regular bus service. The harbourside villages of Portloe and Portscatho are each about four and seven miles distant, and St Mawes is about 11 miles to the south.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
