The master bedroom spans the entirety of the top floor, offering versatile living space, in-built storage and en-suite shower room. Outside, this family home boasts a garage and driveway parking for multiple vehicles. There are also two on-street public electric car charging points available. The canal is a stones throw away from the front door, offering easy access into nearby towns such as Stonehouse and Stroud, along with the Ebley Wharf which is home to a handful of popular eateries and coffee shops.

Viewing is a must to appreciate the space this property offers throughout.

Situation

Ebley Wharf is an historic part of Stroud, housing many beautiful period mill buildings set by the Stroudwater Canal. There is a popular coffee shop and hairdressers across the square and local convenience store a short stroll away, with Sainsburys supermarket only a mile away. Ebley lies in the valley of the River Frome, 1.5 miles west of the town of Stroud. The town of Stroud provides further amenities including shops, pubs, primary and secondary schools including Marling and Stroud High grammar schools which are both within a mile, and other local amenities. There is a nationally acclaimed farmer's market and plenty of restaurants and cafes. Stroud also has a railway station which connects directly to Paddington London, and there are road links to Gloucester and Cheltenham, and M5 motorway.
