St. Margarets Close, Calne

£249,950

Vacant Possession and No Chain! A three bedroom link semi-detached home looking out over a pretty landscaped park. The bedrooms are all double in size and there is the bonus of a garage and parking. The rear garden is enclosed and generous. The ground floor has an entrance lobby, living room and modern fitted kitchen. The first floor has three double bedrooms complemented by a bathroom. There is both double glazing and gas central heating. An advantage of the location is that the facilities of Calne centre are a fairly easy walk away.

THE AREA

The home is placed on a pretty residential estate that is proving to be an extremely desirable location to live. There is a mixture of detached and semi detached homes of different styles, in light colours with ornamental railings, that are all pleasing to the eye. There are parks at both ends of the area with this home looking out over a landscaped enclosed park. The centre of Calne is a gentle walk away with multiple facilities. The town is of Historic significance and has a Heritage Quarter with Norman Church, Merchant Green and the River Marden. Calne is the home of Wiltshire Ham and the Discovery of Oxygen.
