Front of the home

A decorative iron gate set within a tall dry stone wall leads to several stone steps up to the elevated dining patio in front of the home. There is space here for a 4-6 seater dining table and seating. This impressive three storey stone-built semi-detached home has beautiful timber-framed windows with some stained glass panes and stone surrounds.

From the dining patio, the views eastwards look across to High Tor and the gorge above the River Derwent. A path on the left leads to the main entrance door and on round to the rear of the house to the utility-boot room and an external store. Steps from there lead up to the rear garden.

Entrance Hallway

Enter the home through the part-glazed wooden door with iron bell on the wall to the right and a light overhead. The door is set within a distinctive stone arch. The impressive hallway has a high ceiling with light fitting, oak floorboards and, directly in front, stairs up to the first and second floors. Matching white panelled doors with wooden knob handles lead into the sitting room, kitchen-diner, cellar and cupboard.

Sitting Room

In this magnificent room the views through the bay window, the beautiful fireplace and decorative ceiling coving all compete for attention. The large, tall east-facing bay window brings lots of natural light flooding in. The high ceiling includes a beautiful ceiling rose around the chandelier light fitting and detailed coving. This spectacular room was the main selling point for the current owners. It's a wonderful space in which to gather with family and friends. The large bay window faces perfectly south and there is also a separate west-facing window bringing additional natural light flooding into the other end of the room.. ### Rear Garden

The impressive and extensive rear garden is accessed up several stone steps from the rear of the home. Set across two tiers, level one has a neat rectangular lawn with raised flower beds and a delightful wooden fairy house. Steps continue up to the upper tier, where you'll find a shed and plenty of space for seating and dining on the gravel floor. There are lots more planted borders with a range of mature bushes and trees including a cypress tree. On all sides is a modern timber fence boundary. Whilst we were there, the only sound accompanying the magnificent views was the busy trill of birdsong. It's a quiet, peaceful sanctuary in which to relax and potter.
